JURKOVIČ HOUSE

Jurkovič House is one of the most significant works of architecture from the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries in Brno. This architectural sight of interest is just as important for Art Nouveau Brno as Villa Tugendhat is for functionalist Brno.

VILLA TUGENDHAT

This unique functionalist building by architect Ludwig Mies van der Rohe and the only UNESCO site in Brno is an absolute must-see! No wonder people don't mind lining up to get in, even though there might not be room for them on one of the tours. Now the BRNOPAS tourist card makes that easier! Please call +420 602 404 246 or +420 513 039 035 for more information on tour dates and tickets to Villa Tugendhat or visit the Tourist Information Centre on Panenská Street.

VILLA STIASSNI

Designed by the famous architect Ernst Wiesner, the luxurious villa was commissioned by industrialist Alfred Stiassni for his family. Wiesner built the famous residence between 1927 and 1929 in a 3+hectare garden with a tennis court and pool. Inside, the family asked for luxury, including decorated sitting rooms with wood panelling, marble fireplaces, stuccos and furniture in a style that can be referred to as historicism.

PENITENTIARY ON CEJL STR.

KÁZNICE NA CEJLU

The origins of this exceptional building located on Cejl Street date back to the end of the 18th century, and it used to serve as a county penitentiary. Originally built right outside the city walls, it is now located close to the city centre and only a few people know that political prisoners during the Nazi and Communist regimes were executed here in the 20th century.
