Discover the best of Brno's culinary scene!

Brno's gastronomy will enchant you with its diversity. To help you navigate through it, we've handpicked the finest establishments where you can dine and indulge in great drinks.

For our Gourmet Guide, lovers of Brno, including Brno locals, have shared their favourite places with us. Those that were mentioned multiple times have been included in the final rankings, evaluated by an independent panel. Professionals and experienced influencers from both here and abroad have then assessed the nominated establishments in 6 categories – RESTAURANTS AND BISTROS, CONFECTIONARIES, CAFÉS, BEER SPOTS, WINE

BARS and BARS. The seventh category, TAKE-AWAY, remains unrated due to its diverse nature.

This year, we've combined restaurants and bistros into one category, but simultaneously, we've divided it into two financial subcategories, based on whether you'll be able to enjoy dinner with dessert and a glass of wine for under or over 500 CZK. A series of pictograms will help you navigate.

Join us in falling in love with Brno, a city where you can savour flavours from all over the world.

Bon appétit and cheers!

EGGO Break Feast bistro

“Eggs tuned to perfection and a mimosa to go with them. Is there a better way to start a day of roaming the streets of Brno?”

From an ancient food truck parked at the Vegetable Market, these guys moved to a regular bistro. And from Tuesday to Sunday, they start early in the morning to serve breakfast, brunch, light lunches and now they even have snacks to go with your beer or wine on weekdays too. Their home: Dvořákova Street; their tempo: murderous; their arch nemeses: early alarm clocks, reservations, and poorly made omelettes. The guys from Eggo are doing their thing day and night.
